

WEDDING PLANNING WORKSHEETS.COM

Wedding Tradition: Who Pays For What

The bride traditionally pays for the ...

- Wedding ring for the groom
- Gifts for the attendants
- Accommodation for out-of-town attendants
- Wedding gift for the groom
- Wedding day lingerie
- Bridesmaids luncheon

The groom traditionally pays for the ...

- Bride's rings (including the engagement ring)
- Honeymoon vacation
- Wedding gift for the bride
- Marriage license
- Groomsmen gifts
- Bride's bouquet
- Corsages for mother of bride and mother of groom
- Boutonnieres for men in wedding party
- Ties and accessories for the men in the wedding party
- Clergy, Justice of the Peace, Wedding Officiant or minister's fee

The groom's family traditionally pays for ...

- Their own attire
- The rehearsal dinner

The bride's family traditionally pays for the ...

- Wedding planner
- Engagement party and announcement
- Wedding reception
- Bride's attire
- Wedding invitations, announcements, thank you notes
- Wedding photographer and videographer
- Wedding ceremony costs
- Bridesmaids and flower girl's flowers and accessories
- Ring bearer's accessories
- Transportation for bridal party from ceremony to reception
- All gratuities

WEDDING PLANNING WORKSHEETS.COM

- Their own attire

The Maid of Honor pays for the ...

- Wedding shower
- Bachelorette party

The Best Man pays for the ...

- Bachelor party

The Attendants pay for their ...

- Wedding attire
- Wedding gifts to the newlyweds

